

Hon. Annoh Dompseh Congratulates Dr. Mahamudu Bawumia on NPP Presidential Primary Victory

Hon. Frank Annoh Dompseh, Member of Parliament for Nsawam-Adoagyiri and Majority Chief Whip, has congratulated Dr. Mahamudu Bawumia on his decisive victory in the New Patriotic Party's presidential primaries.

In a statement following the announcement of the results, Hon. Annoh Dompseh described Dr. Bawumia's win as a clear endorsement of his leadership, vision, and long-standing commitment to the progress of Ghana and the ideals of the New Patriotic Party.

“Dr. Mahamudu Bawumia's victory reflects the confidence party delegates have in his ability to lead our party and our nation into the future,” Hon. Annoh Dompseh said. “His consistency, integrity, and forward-looking vision have resonated strongly with our party's grassroots and leadership alike.”

He commended all the candidates who participated in the race, noting that their campaigns enriched internal party democracy and strengthened the NPP ahead of the 2028 general elections. According to him, the maturity and unity displayed throughout the contest demonstrate the party's readiness to break the eight and continue delivering development-oriented governance for Ghanaians.

Hon. Annoh Dompseh urged party members across the country to rally behind Dr. Bawumia and work together to consolidate the party's base and expand its appeal. “Now is the time for unity and collective effort. With Dr. Bawumia as our flagbearer, we must move forward as one strong, united party with a clear message of hope, innovation, and inclusive development,” he stated.

He reaffirmed his personal support and commitment to working with Dr. Bawumia and the party leadership to secure victory in the next general elections, adding that the NPP remains the best vehicle for Ghana's continued economic transformation and democratic stability.
